Dear Friend:

Did you know that my office is a one-stop-shop for state information and services?

And as your representative in the State Assembly, I have an office that provides the highest quality of public service. Read on to learn about the help that we offer.

Although you can contact me via mail or phone, you can also help me GO GREEN by filling out and returning the response card attached to this brochure. It will allow me to electronically communicate with you, saving both time and money.

If you don’t have access to a computer, feel free to contact me using the information on my business card (attached).

I look forward to serving you.

Sincerely,

BILL QUIRK
Assemblymember, Twentieth District
